

Time & Stress Management

Course Overview

Personal time management is not about making more time – that’s impossible. Rather, it is about making the best use of the time. By doing this you choose time management over stress management. This interactive course purpose is to get you to know how to ultimately use your time and plan your business and personal life properly. Moreover, it will help you to identify your different stressors, to differentiate between stress and distress, and besides you’ll learn some important lessons to better use your time and tips to reduce your stress levels.
